

Kellie

Description:

Welcome to my website I'm Kellie. I am going to tell you a little bit about myself but firstly I want to assure you that all the information and photos on this site are genuine and up to date. I am 25 years old; I am a well-spoken English girl with a lighthearted attitude. I only escort part time as I do have other exciting projects in my life that take up some of my time. I am an ideal companion for a dinner date (my favourite), business function or just a playful hour or two of fun.

Intelligence, friendliness and affection are some of the qualities I can promise you will experience during our time together. I enjoy spending time with polite, easy-going guys who know how to treat a girl. I am a warm, fun loving person with a down to earth attitude equalled by the naughty side of my nature! For a true girl friend experience you have found the right girl! I like to provide the best service possible.
